Welcome to Tuna, Texas - the third smallest town in the Lone Star State, where the Lion's Club is too liberal and Patsy Cline never dies. Join us for a rowdy romp through a day in Tuna, starting with the morning broadcast from radio station OKKK and wandering through the homes and businesses of the denizens of this colourful community. The ever vigilant Vera Carp and the Smut Snatchers of the New Order are trying to clean up the dictionary, Petey Fisk is trying to save animals, town drunk R.R. Snavelly sights a U.F.O., and Phineas Blye announces he's running for mayor for the 14th time. It's a funny, loving portrait of rural America.... big hearts, small minds and all.
